Dear Parents,

It is with great excitement that I introduce the new principal of Our Lady of Guadalupe School, Mrs. Stella Costello. She is a dedicated and enthusiastic Catholic educator who is eager to share her knowledge and passion for Catholic education with the families she will serve.

Mrs. Costello is a graduate of Cal Poly Pomona and Loyola Marymount University. She has ten years of experience as a teacher who has taught kindergarten, first grade, fourth grade and junior high school. In addition, Mrs. Costello has also served in administration as a vice principal and principal for a total of four years. She comes from the Archdiocese of Los Angeles, and has expertise mentoring teachers, has served as a WCEA/WASC Chairperson, has served as a professor at the college level and has been a Leadership Chair at the Archdiocesan level. She has great experience with marketing for enrollment with a degree in Communication and Public Relations.

In order to make this transition smooth, Mrs. Costello will visit our campus to meet with current administration and will be introduced to faculty, students, parents and parishioners. Mrs. Costello is eager to meet the faculty and students and will be on campus Thursday, May 23rd. During that day she will tour the school and meet the students. Faculty will be able to meet with her during an after school "Meet and Greet" on that day. Parents and parishioners will be invited to a "Welcome Celebration" in her honor on Wednesday, May 29th at 7:00 p.m.

We hope that you join us as we welcome the new principal for the 2019-2020 school year. We all look forward to getting to know her better.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Ossa
Interim Principal
Our Lady of Guadalupe School
