Preparing for College
Why College?

• College is critical to your future
• Jobs of the future will require more skills than those provided by a high school education alone
• Students who go to college have financial advantages
  – their life-time earnings are higher than those of high school graduates
  – they are less likely to be unemployed
  – their children are more likely to attend college
Why College?

Besides educational gain, earning a college degree also places you at a different earning bracket:

Median weekly earnings in 2012
Based on level of education

- High School Diploma: $652
- Bachelor's Degree: $785
- Bachelor's Degree: $1,066
- Master's Degree: $1,300
- Doctoral Degree: $1,624
- Professional Degree: $1,735

Paying for College
What Does Financial Aid Offer?

• Access to funds to help pay for
  – 4-year public and independent colleges and universities
  – Community colleges
  – Private career colleges

• Choice among schools
  – Choose the best academic, career, cultural, and social fit rather than the least expensive program
What Are The Basic Concepts Of Financial Aid?

• Student Cost of Attendance (COA)
• Parent and Student Expected Family Contribution (EFC)
• Student Financial Need
What Is The Cost of Attending College?

- Tuition & Fees
- Room & Board
- Personal Expenses
- Books & Supplies
- Transportation
What is the EFC (Estimated Family Contribution)?

The Expected Family Contribution (EFC) is the amount a family (parents and student) is expected to pay from income and assets over time.
How Do We Determine The Student’s Need?

Cost of Attendance (COA)
- Estimated Family Contribution (EFC)

Financial Need

What Are The Primary Sources Of Financial Aid?

- Federal government
- State governments
- Colleges and universities
- Private agencies and organizations
What Type of Loans Are Available For Students and Parents?

If student/parents loans are offered loans in a financial aid packet, families should understand the different types

Federal Perkins Loans
- Need based
- Subsidized (no interest accrues while in school)
- Low interest rate

Federal Stafford Loans
- Government guaranteed
- Qualify for unsubsidized loans regardless of family income
- Subsidized loans require student and family to show financial need.

Federal PLUS Loans for parents and graduate students
- Fixed interest rates/unsubsidized
- Cover the cost of education
- Not need-based
- Unsubsidized (interest accrues while in college)

Private loans
- cover the cost of tuition and other eligible educated related expenses
- Credit based and students might need a cosigner

In the best of all possible worlds, full “need” will be met with financial aid award made up of grants and scholarships along with reasonable amounts of work and loan. Some schools are not able to meet full need.
You Receive Financial Aid By Completing The FAFSA

1. Obtain a U.S. Department of Education (ED) Personal Identification Number (PIN)

   www.pin.ed.gov

2. Complete the FAFSA as soon as possible after January 1st.

   www.fafsa.ed.gov

FAFSA DEADLINE VARIES BY STATE

3. Watch for your Student Aid Report (SAR), where EFC amount is included

4. Learn about other required financial aid forms
   - CSS Profile through College Board

TIP: Get an estimate of federal financial aid eligibility at:

www.fafsa4caster.ed.gov
Important Update to FAFSA

• IRS Retrieval and Transfer Tool
  – Automatically transfers data from IRS to FAFSA
  – Easier way to fill out the FAFSA

• IRS data available:
  – 1-2 weeks after electronic filing
  – 6-8 weeks after paper filing

• Not required

• FAFSA Website: www.fafsa.ed.gov
Use Your College’s Net Price Calculator

- The Net Price Calculator is a tool that can help you estimate your total costs and help you understand the types of financing resources that you may qualify for. Use the search feature on your college’s website and type price calculator to get an estimate.

- When planning your college budget, consider the following expenses:
  - Tuition and fees:
  - Housing
  - Meals
  - Books and supplies
  - Transportation
  - Personal expenses
Undocumented Students

- Can attend college
- Ask colleges about their undocumented student policy
- Dream Act equivalent of FAFSA for undocumented students
- DACA—Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals
Undocumented Students

- Qualify for certain types of aid—take advantage of these!
  - Merit-based scholarships to all admitted students
  - Special programs for undocumented students
  - Financial aid packets are offered at many institutions

- Additional resources to receive more information and apply for aid:
  - HSF.NET
  - www.latinocollegedollars.org

What Happens After The FAFSA Submission?

• Institutions will take into account your family’s EFC (Expected Family Contribution) as calculated on the online Student Aid Report (SAR)

• Financial aid packets from all institutions student was admitted into

• If schools are not able to meet full need, students will need to rely on other alternatives (scholarships, loans, etc.)
  – Visit HSF.NET to learn more about our scholarship!
    • HSF Application opens on January 15th

• It is important to compare all financial aid packets available and keep in mind what the student is looking for in a college
• Check your email!
