School & Community

The Mt. Pleasant Community School District encompasses 303 square miles and includes four elementary schools (K-5), one middle school (6-8) and one senior high school (9-12). For the 2016-17 school year, there were 2,050 students. There are approximately 340 employees in the district. The district has finished additions to two elementary schools and also completed a new senior high. In addition, the Middle School has recently finished an expansion and renovation.

Mt. Pleasant is a community of over 8,000 in South-east Iowa. It is located at the crossroads of U.S. Highway 34 and U.S. Highway 218, also known as the Avenue of the Saints. Because of the outstanding transportation network, ten Fortune 500 companies have facilities in Mt. Pleasant. One of the top 100 hospitals in rural America, the Henry County Health Center, is located in Mt. Pleasant. In addition, Iowa Wesleyan College, the oldest coeducational college west of the Mississippi River, provides a traditional liberal arts program.

There are many recreational activities available in the 230 acres of parks that are maintained by the city. Recent additions to the recreational opportunities include an outdoor family aquatic center and a 30,000 sq. ft. recreation center.
