Holt: Elements of Language

Price to replace textbook: $25.00

Course Description: This one-year course emphasizes the development of specific writing types: persuasive, informative/explanatory, and narrative in which the development, organization, and style are appropriate to task, purpose, and audience. Students will demonstrate increasing levels of sophistication in all aspects of language use. Students will actively seek to understand other perspectives and cultures through reading and listening. Technology is used thoughtfully to enhance reading, writing, speaking, listening, and language use. This course fulfills the seventh-grade English Language Arts requirement.

I. Course goals

1. To write arguments to support claims in an analysis of substantive topics or texts, using valid reasoning and relevant and sufficient evidence. [NVACS: W.7.1]
2. To write informative/explanatory texts to examine and convey complex ideas and information clearly and accurately through the effective selection, organization, and analysis of content. [NVACS: W.7.2]
3. To write narratives to develop real or imagined experiences or events using effective technique, well-chosen details, and well-structured event sequences. [NVACS: W.7.3]
4. To develop and strengthen writing as needed by planning, revising, editing, rewriting, or trying a new approach. [NVACS: W.7.5]
5. To conduct short as well as more sustained research projects based on focused questions, demonstrating understanding of the subject under investigation. [NVACS: W.7.7]
6. To gather relevant information from multiple print and digital sources, assess the credibility and accuracy of each source, and integrate the information while avoiding plagiarism. [NVACS: W.7.8]
7. To draw evidence from literary or informational texts to support analysis, reflection, and research. [NVACS: W.7.9]
8. To write routinely over extended time frames (time for research, reflection, and revision) and shorter time frames (a single sitting or a day or two) for a range of tasks, purposes, and audiences. [NVACS: W.7.10]
9. To collaborate, express and listen carefully to ideas, evaluate and integrate information from oral, visual, quantitative, and media sources, use media and visual displays strategically to achieve communicative purposes, and adapt speech to context and task. [NVACS: SL.7.1, SL.7.2, SL.7.3, SL.7.4, SL.7.5, SL.7.6]
10. To demonstrate command of the conventions of standard English grammar and usage when writing or speaking. [NVACS: L.7.1]
11. To demonstrate command of the conventions of standard English capitalization, punctuation, and spelling when writing. [NVACS: L.7.2]

II. Course content and time schedule

Unit 1 – Generations: In this unit, students will investigate what one generation can learn from another. They will consider how knowledge flows between age groups.
