Helping our Neighbors

St. Joseph School in Pomona is one of the 65 schools that remain open as a strong Catholic presence in the community, thanks to Together in Mission. The Felician Sisters staffed this school for many years as they did at OLA. St. Joe's School has a rich history going back 120 years. We can help our neighbor sustain this tradition through Together in Mission.

For over 25 years, Together in Mission has helped stabilize the Catholic parishes and schools in economically deprived areas of the Archdiocese of Los Angeles. Fully 100 percent of your donation helps to keep their doors open as signs of hope in the community. It is important to note that even parishes and schools receiving assistance are expected to give ten percent of their income to TIM, just as we are.

We invite all families – those who have given in the past, and those who have never made a gift – to prayerfully consider a commitment to this year's campaign. Your gifts will go a long way to helping us reach our 2019 parish goal of $140,900. We are pleased to report that we met our 2018 goal with payments of $141,958 (102%).

By now, you should have received a letter from Archbishop Jose Gomez in the mail. He asks us to consider the great role that our parish plays in our life and share that gift with others. Together we can ensure that these worthy parishes and schools will have a safe place to worship and learn.

The impact of your donation to Together in Mission is real, tangible. You provide financial assistance to parishes and schools so that they can continue their vital ministries to youth and other vulnerable groups. At St. Joe's, our new pastor has been able to divert some of the funds he would have given to the school to purchase needed fencing to secure our property. Thank you!

World Marriage Day

This Sunday the Church celebrates World Marriage Day. A blessing will be part of all liturgies this weekend. Married couples are the foundation of the family and the basic unit of society. This day salutes the beauty of their faithfulness, sacrifice and joy in daily life. They are role models for the love that all Christians are called to demonstrate. Read a reflection on the true meaning of love. Learn and grow in love through the wisdom of the saints.

The Chocolate Campaign

It is about families. Cocoa farmers struggle to earn less than $1 per day, so their children must join the workforce. Some – over a quarter of a million – are sold or kidnapped to work as slaves. The remainder have no chance to attend school. Fair Trade is turning this around. Certification means a decent wage – enough to put food on the table – in addition to strict rules that require children to attend school. International inspectors monitor all of this.

So when you purchase chocolate for Valentine's Day, join thousands of others across the country in buying only Fair Trade items. You will be sending a message to manufacturers that they must act ethically for your business.

Prayer for Our Church Renovation

Holy Mary, Gracious Lady of the Assumption, we thank you for being our Mother and Advocate. You never leave us and always lead us to Jesus, Our Lord.

We pray for wisdom and patience to complete the renovation of our church home. Help guide us to make all the right choices to create a prayerful, peaceful and loving home, as you did for Joseph and Jesus in Nazareth.

Bless the artists working now on the sacred objects for our sanctuary, that they may persevere in their labor for the glory of God.

May we always remember your words to do whatever Jesus tells us to do. Thank you, dear Blessed Mother. Amen.

the Children:

Protect their financial future

As parents, we want to keep our children safe from any harm. That includes harm from identity theft, which can lead to compromised credit scores and financial ruin before your child even gets a first job! Take steps to minimize the risk of identity theft by setting up credit freezes on your child's social security number, or getting an IRS identity protection PIN that will prevent fraudulent use of your child's identity. Information is available at www.la-archdiocese.org. Search "Did You Know" and click on "Protecting Your Child's Financial Future."

Learn and grow in love through the wisdom of the saints:

Fall in love.

“We become what we love and who we love shapes what we become.”

– St. Clare of Assisi

Practice loving.

“You learn to speak by speaking, to study by studying, to work by working, and just so, you learn to love by loving.

All those who think to learn in any other way deceive themselves.”

– St. Francis de Sales

Share love.

“What does love look like? It has the hands to help others. It has the feet to hasten to the poor and needy. It has eyes to see misery and want. It has the ears to hear the sighs and sorrows of humans. That is what love looks like.”

– St. Augustine

Love is...

It is February, and love is in the air. Throughout the month, we will be presented with beautiful images of love in advertising, read stories of love online, and hear music about love on our streaming devices. Even young children will share Valentine cards and candy on February 14. Many of the people who celebrate love on that day do not realize that Valentine is a saint, a Third Century martyr.

We often carelessly throw the word “love” about. We “love” the newest show, restaurant, or possession. We “love” activities, annual gatherings, and traditions. We love family, friends, and neighbors. Of course, even in using the word in these many, varied ways, we know that there are distinctions between the love we have for places, possessions and people. The Sunday readings this month lead us to reflect on what love is, and to strive for the love that Jesus shows and shares.

Love is a gift. Anyone who has ever experienced love (hopefully, that is all of us) knows the amazing and mysterious gift that love is. There is literally nothing like it! We must be prepared to receive this great gift attentively and know that receiving love calls us to give love in return.

Love is a reflection of God. God is love. As Jean Valjean movingly sings at the end of the musical Les Miserables, “to love another person is to see the face of God.” Jesus helps us understand that we see God’s face most profoundly in the gaze of the stranger, the poor, lonely, imprisoned, grieving, and vulnerable. What we do or fail to do are actions or inactions for the Lord himself.

Love is a virtue. God dwells in us. As temples of the Holy Spirit, we are called to grow and live in love. The more readily we do so, the more likely it will be that others will see and experience God through us.

Love is self-giving. Jesus shows us that God’s way is the way of self-giving love. Selfless love is not easy. We are often tempted to place conditions on our love – we will show others love when they earn it. Yet, Jesus calls us to love. All the time. Everyone. Jesus even calls us to love our enemies, do good to those who hurt us, bless those who curse us, and pray for those who mistreat us. (Feb. 24, Lk 6:27-38) This is such a profound way of life that we might think it impossible, and yet, all things are possible with the grace of God.

Love never fails. When in doubt, seek good for the other, reach out in love, and know that where love is, there God is found! Fall in love. © Catholic Life and Faith
