

Resources for Students and Families

Free Internet

Free internet offered through Comcast for low income families. They also have a program to purchase a computer. <https://www.internetessentials.com>

Comcast:

Offering for everyone, including non-subscribers, for the 60 days. It's also providing unlimited data to its customers for no extra charge and is not disconnecting internet service or charging late fees for customers who say they can't pay their bills. The company is also providing 60 days of free basic internet service to new customers.

AT&T: The cable, phone and media giant is suspending the termination of wireless, home phone or broadband service when customers can't pay their bills because of coronavirus disruptions. The company is also waiving related late fees. Like Comcast, AT&T is also providing free access to its public WiFi hot spots. The company also said its consumer home internet wireline customers and fixed wireless internet customers would receive unlimited data.

Verizon said it is waiving late fees and suspending service termination for customers "negatively impacted by the global crisis.

T-Mobile: The mobile phone service provider is providing unlimited data to all current customers who have plans with data for the next 60 days. It will also provide additional data to mobile hotspot users.

Verizon

Utilities

PNM is suspending collection and credit reporting for nonpayment until further notice. Customers will be notified by PNM before billing and disconnection policies resume. New Mexico Gas Company announced that no customers' service will be disconnected for nonpayment through at least April 6, 2020.

NM Gas (from website)

We understand some customers are facing difficult circumstances right now with the Coronavirus situation. To help, no service will be disconnected for non-payment, at least through April 6. Meanwhile, we are asking customers to limit visits to our walk-in offices. Please consider paying your bill by mail, by phone or on this website at the My Account tab at the top of this page. We may need to close walk-in offices if required to keep employees and customers safe.
