

WASC Accreditation Town Hall

What is WASC?

The Western Association of Schools and Colleges (WASC) is the accrediting body for the western region of the United States. Accreditation is the process for evaluating and assuring the quality of educational institutions and programs.

Why is WASC Accreditation important to RMFECHS?

WASC accreditation is a process that serves as the foundation for quality education. An accredited school is a statement to the broader community and the stakeholders that it is trustworthy institution for student learning and committed to ongoing improvement. This “seal of approval” is the first step to acquiring a-g course approvals, PSAT/SAT testing eligibility, and more.

What is the process for accreditation of a new school?
