Online Course Agreement

Scholars may take online courses for high school credit if they are taking the courses for the purposes of 1) credit recovery, 2) to fulfill JAA graduation requirements that cannot be met in the current schedule, or 3) for academic enrichment in coursework not offered at JAA.

All online courses must be approved by a school counselor prior to enrollment in the course. This form must be completed and signed by a counselor at least TWO WEEKS PRIOR to the start of the course being taken.

Credit recovery is completed through the Edgenuity program and is paid for by John Adams Academy. If a scholar withdraws from John Adams Academy, they will be withdrawn from any Edgenuity courses they are currently enrolled in. Credit recovery courses may also be completed through BYU Independent Study or Apex Learning at scholar's expense.

Courses to meet graduation requirements or for academic enrichment may be taken through BYU Independent Study or Apex Learning at scholar's expense. John Adams Academy does not pay for graduation requirement or academic enrichment courses taken outside of the Academy. (For example: Foreign language classes taken online are not paid for by John Adams Academy).

John Adams Academy does not provide tutoring services or private supervision for any online courses. The Academy cannot guarantee the use of a device or a private space for the completion of online coursework. Scholars must have a 3.0 GPA or higher to take online courses for academic enrichment.
