LITTLE KIDS CAN and BIG KIDS CAN

are 9-week support groups for children experiencing the recent death of a family member or friend.

Members are given the opportunity to share their feelings, learn more about the grief process, bond with others and develop new methods of coping and problem solving.

Support group for parents/guardians of participating children runs concurrently. (not mandatory but recommended)

Parent and Guardian Testimonials:

It's very healing to talk to others who are dealing with similar situations.

My son really enjoyed meeting other children that had suffered same/similar loss. Until this group, he thought he was the only child who had lost a family member.

My daughter liked the fact that she met other kids her age that can understand what she is going through.

Gave me a lot of tools to help my daughter as well as myself through grief.

This was so healthy and healing for the whole family.

We're so thankful for this program. It changed our lives and I will forever be grateful.
