

Franklin School Code of Conduct

As part of a community, we all share certain rights and responsibilities. The members of the Franklin school community treat one another in a caring manner.

Everyone has a right to be treated with respect.

I will follow the "golden rule" and treat others the way I want to be treated. I will strive to avoid hurting other people's feelings. I will encourage others, instead of mocking them. I will be polite and speak kindly to all members of the Franklin School community.

Everyone has a right to be accepted.

At Franklin School, everyone is treated fairly. I know that it does not matter if someone is big or small, a boy or a girl, what color their skin is, how they speak, where they are from, or what religion they practice. I will always work on treating others fairly and I ask that people treat me fairly too.

Everyone has a right to be safe.

I will make sure Franklin School is bully free. I know that hitting, kicking, pushing or trying to scare someone will hurt them. I understand that name calling and teasing will hurt people's feelings. If I see or know that someone is being bullied, I will support them with my friendship and tell an adult.

Everyone has a right to hear and be heard.

I will be quiet when others are talking, giving them the attention they deserve. I know that screaming and yelling are bad choices for making others feel welcome or respected.

Everyone has a right to learn in a clean and orderly environment.

I will take care of my belongings and the property of others. I will treat the school with respect. I want others to respect my belongings in return.
