ACCREDITED

What does it mean to be accredited (and why should I care)?

Accreditation is a term used to describe the process that schools, grade school, high, school, and college, undergo to confirm they meet the strictest educational standards. It is our “license” to operate.

- Who do we want our students to be?
- What do we want our students to learn?
- How do we ensure our graduates are successful?

Strong mission

What was the process?

9 months of self-study: looking at data, discussing and creating objectives and actions plans to improve student performance and school academics

Objective and Actions Plans will guide Bonner & Prendie for the next 7 years.

Our Mission

Monsignor Bonner & Archbishop Prendergast Catholic High School is a diverse community of learners rooted in the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Guided by time-honored traditions and a dedication to the service of others, we are committed to providing a preeminent, comprehensive education within an environment of acceptance, respect, and love. We strive to enrich the lives of our students with the values and skills necessary to navigate the ever-changing world.

So What is Our Plan?

Are we good? Yes

Can we improve? Yes

Surveys to parents, students, and staff

Identified areas where we could best improve and grow.
