

Notice of Vacancy

Edgecombe County Board of Education

The Edgecombe County Board of Education is announcing a vacancy created by the resignation of Board member Olga Dickens, who represented District 2. The Board is seeking a qualified person to fill the remainder of her term. The appointee will serve until the seat is filled in the next school board election (May 2020).

This is a public service position and the person appointed will not be an employee of the Edgecombe County Public Schools.

In order to be eligible for this office, you must be:

- At least 21 years old;
- A qualified voter in North Carolina; and
- A resident of District 2.

Other legal requirements may apply.

Any person who is interested in being considered for this office should submit a statement of interest to the Board Chair Dr. Evelyn Wilson at Edgecombe County Board of Education, 2311 N Main Street, Tarboro, NC 27886 or email to rcole@ecps.us. All statements of interest must be received by the close of business on November 2, 2018. Please include the following information in your statement: name, address, telephone number, and affirmation that you meet all of the above requirements for the office, along with the reasons you wish to be considered. Please note that all statements of interest are public records.

All persons who meet the eligibility requirements for the office and submit a timely statement of interest will be given an opportunity to address the Board. The Board will hear the presentations of interested persons at its regularly scheduled Board meeting on November 19, 2018. Each candidate will be given 5 minutes to address the Board.
