

English 10 Summer Assignment 2018

Dear Scholars,

In order to be successful in English 10, it's important to stay intellectually engaged (especially during the summer months) so that you continue to grow as a student. Reading is a great way to facilitate this growth and also prepare you for the next school year. Therefore, your future English 10 teachers have compiled a list of books ranging in complexity, topic, and genre. Your summer assignment is to read and thoroughly annotate one of the books from this list.

1. Ender's Game by Orson Scott Card*
2. Absolutely True Diary of a Part Time Indian by Sherman Alexie
3. Okay for Now by Gary D. Schmidt
4. In the Time of the Butterflies by Julia Alvarez
5. Uglies by Scott Westerfeld
6. The Hate U Give by Angie Thomas
7. The Alchemist by Paulo Coelho
8. Like Water for Chocolate by Laura Esquivel*
9. Lord of the Flies by William Golding*
10. Things Fall Apart by Chinua Achebe*
11. Push by Sapphire*
12. The Princess Bride by William Goldman*
13. Red Dragon by Thomas Harris*
14. Devil in a Blue Dress by Walter Mosley*
15. Fried Green Tomatoes by Fannie Flagg*
16. The Curious Incident of the Dog in the Night Time by Mark Haddon

You will be expected to have this work completed by the first day of school. You will also be expected to bring this book with you every day for the first two weeks, as you will complete various assignments with this text.

The CCHS library has multiple copies of each book with an asterisk (*) next to it. Other titles may be found at the local library or purchased at a local bookstore or on Amazon.com. If you decide to borrow the book, all annotations should be done on separate sheets of paper and these annotations brought to class with the book each day.

We hope you enjoy your book and look forward to seeing you in English 10 next year!
