

SACS / AdvancED External Review

Eastern North Carolina School for the Deaf (ENCSD) went through the External Review by AdvancED for accreditation, March 9-10, 2015. ENCSD completed the requirements for accreditation. The External Review Team recommended to the AdvancED Accreditation Commission that ENCSD earn the distinction of accreditation by AdvancED for a five year term. ENCSD school leaders, faculty and staff recognize the importance of pursuing innovative ways to help learners attain their highest potential and equipping ourselves to continue to strive for excellence. The commitment to continuous improvement for learners at ENCSD is a dynamic effort, consistently requiring attention and revision.
