Dear Columbia Roughneck Football Player:

I hope your summer has been fun and relaxing. I have seen several of you during the summer at the workout session; again, they are Monday-Thursday from 9am-11am. We will have football drills/practice on the following dates: July 15, July 24, and July 29 from 7:00pm-8:30pm. I hope you are preparing your body for the upcoming season during the summer. I am writing you this letter to let you know how excited I am about the upcoming football season and to give you information regarding the practice schedule. Expectations are high for this upcoming football season for the Columbia Roughnecks and we have to come to practice with the frame of mind of getting better every day. Competition for positions will be fierce, so it is imperative that you attend every practice and you have a positive attitude and a great work ethic. Remember that great effort is usually the result of a great attitude. The standards for the program are high and each one of us must do our part to meet those standards. It is a great time to be a Columbia Roughneck football player.
