All students are eligible during Summer Break

A student's current grade, between the grading periods, does not change their eligibility, only the grading periods listed above change eligibility.

After the first six weeks academic eligibility check, students may only lose academic eligibility at each nine week report card.

Students can regain academic eligibility at the three- and six-week progress reports and at the nine weeks report card

Eligible= passing all classes with 70 or above at a grading period (or using exemptions for Pre-AP or AP/Dual Credit classes listed below)

Ineligible= failing one or more classes at a report card or not regaining from previously losing eligibility

Pre-AP classes must have a grade of 60 or above to be considered passing. They have a 10 point waiver for exemption.

AP or Dual Credit Classes do not change eligibility, they are exempt. Students can have any grade in these classes and remain eligible.

Academic eligibility is determined from nine-week grades, not semester grades. Semester grades are not taken into consideration for eligibility.

All students are academically eligible during the Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Spring Break Holidays and at Summer Break.
