

Law Institute & AFJROTC 10th, 11th & 12th Grade SLC Summer Assignment

Name: _____

Date: _____

Directions: Choose one movie from the list below, complete the movie outline, and write a four to five paragraph movie review on loose-leaf. A movie review, like a book review, consists of a summary and analysis. Your review should start with a topic sentence, then a summary of the movie, then your analysis, and finally a closing sentence. Please review the movie rating with your parent/guardian before watching it.

Movies (select one movie based on the grade you are entering):

Grade 10: The Pelican Brief, Presumed Innocent, My Sister’s Keeper, Defiance, Saving Private Ryan, Gandhi, Hotel Rwanda, Bridge of Spies, The Right Stuff, U-571

Grade 11: To Kill a Mockingbird, Reversal of Fortune, Beyond a Reasonable Doubt, Lincoln, 12 Years a Slave, 13 Days, Mississippi Burning, Race, First Man, Memphis Belle

Grade 12: Legally Blonde, All the President’s Men, A Few Good Men, Boiler Room, Black Hawk Down, Amistad, Selma, Philadelphia, The Tuskegee Airmen, Hidden Figures

Outline

T.S. (name of movie, director, setting):

---

---

Plot Summary (Who? What? When? Where? Why? How?):

1. ....
.....
2. ....
.....
3. ....
.....
4. ....
.....

Analysis (What are the most important legal, military, and/or historical themes of the movie? What evidence from the film supports these themes?):

1. ....
.....
2. ....
.....
3. ....
.....
4. ....
.....

C.S. (recommendation, opinion):

---

---

Summer Assignment Success Criteria

- My topic sentence states the movie title, director, and setting.
- My plot summary answers the following questions based on the movie: Who? What? When? Where? Why? How?
- My analysis identifies the most important legal, military, and/or historical themes from the movie.
- My analysis explains themes by using specific evidence from the movie.
- My essay uses proper spelling, grammatical, and punctuation.
- My closing sentence makes a recommendation and/or provides my opinion about the movie.