COUNSELING NEWS

Saugus High School would like to announce that there will be four classes offered by College of the Canyons in the spring semester at Saugus High School. These classes are open to all 11th and 12th grade students. Students will receive both high school and college credit for completing COC classes while in high school. All classes start the week of February 4, 2019, and end the week of May 15, 2019. The classes being offered are:

1. Sign Language 101. Mondays and Wednesdays from 5:30 PM to 7:55 PM. This course meets the California "A-G" foreign language admissions requirement.

2. Philosophy 101. Tuesdays and Thursdays from 3:30 PM to 5:05 PM.

3. Media 102. Mondays and Wednesdays from 3:30 PM to 5:20 PM.

4. Counseling 110. Tuesdays and Thursday from 3:30 PM to 5:05 PM.

Seating in these classes is limited, and we encourage all students to start the enrollment process as soon as possible. To enroll, please follow these steps:

1. Go to www.canyons.edu and click on the link for "New Students"

2. Follow the prompts to complete the online application and the online orientation.

3. Once the application and orientation is complete, please have your student come to the counseling office to complete a "College Now!" form.

4. Bring the completed "College Now!" form, along with the counselor and administrator signature, to the admissions and records office at COC. You can bring it to either the Valencia or the Canyon Country campus.

5. When you take the "College Now!" form to COC, they will give you directions on how to complete the registration for the class.
