Dear St. Elizabeth Families,

The Christmas Season is here as our children are spending this week shopping at the Holiday Boutique, making cards for Christian Health Care residents, practicing for the play, pageant and concert. There are so many events in the next 6 days. Please check the calendar so you don't miss anything.

Tomorrow is a Mission day for Oasis and an 8th grade bazaar. The bazaar is in the gym and hosted by our 8th graders. Students should bring money to play games for 50 cents each. Please see the enclosed flyer.

This Saturday is the Santa Breakfast. Please join us for a visit with Santa and a wonderful breakfast. We will have some special elves to help as well. On the 17th at 7pm our theatre group will present "ELF". Please be advised that students must be accompanied by a parent. Students are not to be dropped off or unsupervised. There is an entrance fee of $3.00 for students and $5.00 per adult.

Thank you.

At 1pm on 12/19 we will have our Christmas Pageant and Concert in the Church. Children should wear holiday best for this event. On Friday 12/20 we have an early dismissal at 12:15 and there is no aftercare. School reopens on 1/6/20.

Thank you to the 8th grade for hosting and running the Santa Sleigh 5K. It was great fun. I would like to thank all parents, but especially Mrs. Falletta and Mrs. Wells. Thanks to Mrs. Marchetti and her mother-in-law Sandra for organizing and running the Christmas Boutique.

See you at all the upcoming events!

Sincerely,

Karen A. Lewis
