

UNIVERSITY of WASHINGTON

THE HUSKY PROMISE

W

WE BELIEVE THAT STUDENTS FROM ALL ECONOMIC BACKGROUNDS SHOULD HAVE THE OPPORTUNITY TO ATTEND THE UNIVERSITY OF WASHINGTON.

Financial circumstances should not be a barrier to getting a world-class education. To ensure that the UW remains affordable, the Husky Promise guarantees that full tuition and standard fees will be covered by grant or scholarship support for eligible students. In the 10 years since this program began, more than 40,000 students have attended the UW with the help of the Husky Promise.

HOW DOES IT WORK?

Your tuition will be covered first by your federal and state grants, such as a Pell Grant or State Need Grant. If your eligibility for these programs does not equal the full cost of tuition, the UW will make up the difference with institutional grants or scholarships. Funds awarded for the Husky Promise will cover only up to your calculated financial need and can be reduced if you receive private scholarships or other privately funded resources. At the UW, private scholarships are used to meet need and replace loans before we reduce grant or scholarship assistance.

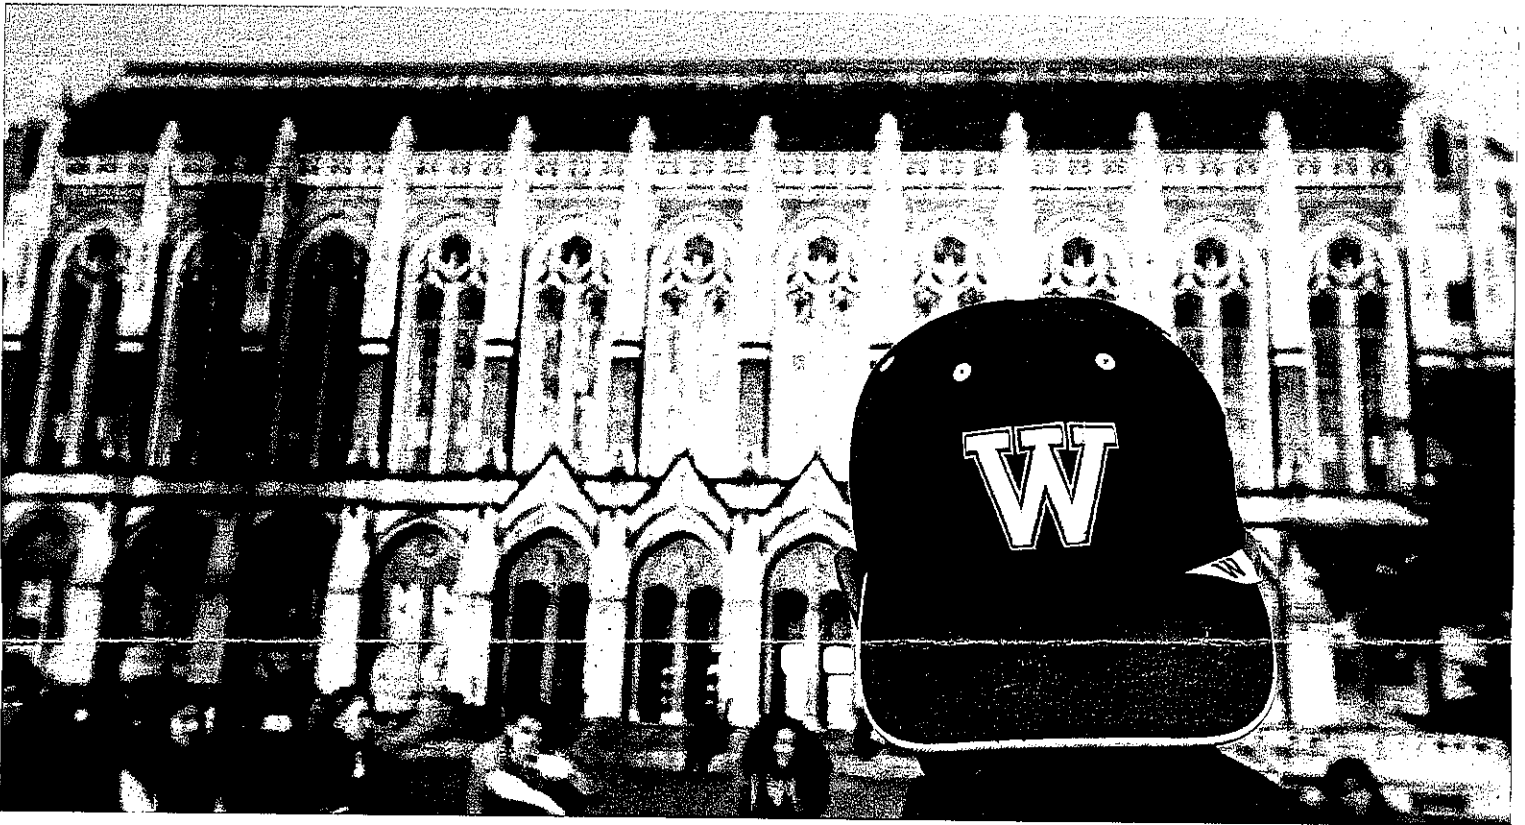

The Husky Promise applies to tuition and fees only; however, there are additional grant, scholarship, work-study and loan funds available to help with the other costs of education, such as books and room and board. Many of the students in the Husky Promise program will receive grants, scholarships or other awards beyond the cost of tuition.

AM I ELIGIBLE?

To be eligible for the Husky Promise, you must meet all the following criteria:

- Be admitted to the UW
- Be a Washington state resident
- Meet all eligibility criteria for the Pell Grant or State Need Grant programs
- Submit the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) or the Washington Application for State Financial Aid (WASFA) before the UW's priority filing date of January 15 for the following academic year; you must list the UW (federal code #003798) as one of the colleges you wish to receive the results of your FAFSA or WASFA
- Enroll full-time at the UW
- Be pursuing a first bachelor's degree
- Maintain satisfactory academic progress while at the UW

EACH YEAR, NEARLY 10,000 DESERVING
WASHINGTON
STUDENTS PAY NO
TUITION TO THE UW — THANKS TO THE HUSKY PROMISE.

WHAT IF I DON'T QUALIFY?

The Husky Promise is just one way that the UW helps students pay for college. Each year, we award more than $400 million in aid to nearly half our undergraduate students. You must apply for financial aid by filing the FAFSA or WASFA by the priority date of January 15 so we can consider you for all our aid programs. If you miss the priority date, you will still be considered for financial aid, but only for limited types.

Visit uw.edu/financialaid for more information.

QUESTIONS?

University of Washington financial aid counselors are available to answer your questions about the Husky Promise and other aid programs. Call, email or visit us:

Bothell campus:

425-352-5240

uwbfaid@uwb.edu

Seattle campus:

206-543-6101

osfa@uw.edu

Tacoma campus:

253-692-4374

uwtfa@uw.edu

HOW DO I APPLY TO THE UW?

To apply for admission at any of the UW's three campuses — in Bothell, Seattle and Tacoma — visit uw.edu/admissions.