HARASSMENT, INTIMIDATION, AND BULLYING

PURPOSE: To define the District’s position on harassment, intimidation, and bullying.

Tulsa Public Schools does not discriminate on the basis of race, religion, color, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, disability, genetic information, veteran status, marital status or age in its employment, programs and activities and provides equal access to the Boy Scouts and other designated youth groups. The following person has been designated to handle inquiries regarding the Tulsa Public Schools’ non-discrimination policies:

Tulsa Legacy Charter School
105 East 63rd Street North
Tulsa, Oklahoma 74126
(918) 794-1442

Harassment, intimidation, and bullying include but are not limited to verbal or physical contact, epithets, slurs, gestures, or graffiti, even in jest, that are targeted toward an individual because of race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, age, national origin, marital status, veteran status, disability or genetic information. Individuals bring different levels of sensitivity to interaction. What may seem harmless, trivial, or "all in good fun" to one person may be extremely offensive to the person to whom the comments or actions are directed.

Harassment, intimidation, and bullying constitute unethical and unacceptable conduct that will not be tolerated at any level. All persons are strictly prohibited from engaging in any form of harassment of any employee, student, or applicant for employment. Anyone engaging in any form of harassment is subject to disciplinary action in accordance with District policy. Harassment also may constitute discrimination.

Any applicant for employment, employee, or student to whom improper comments or actions are directed should utilize the Tulsa Legacy Charter School Grievance Procedure for Discrimination Complaints, or the TLCS Communication Handbook, whichever is appropriate. Violation of this policy by an employee may result in disciplinary action, including a recommendation for employment termination. Students violating this policy will be subject to appropriate disciplinary action at the school level by the principal or designee.

When allegations of harassment, intimidation, or bullying, are filed, a thorough investigation will be conducted by the Superintendent or designee. The investigation will include interviews with all relevant persons. Such persons include, but are not limited to, the complainant, the accused, student(s) and other potential witnesses. Employees and students are assured the privacy of the complainant and the persons accused of harassment will be protected to the extent possible.
When complaints or allegations of harassment based on race, religion, color, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, disability, genetic information, veteran status, marital status or age are made, the grievance procedures set forth in Tulsa Legacy Charter School Grievance Procedure for Discrimination Complaints will be followed.

Anti-Retaliation

The District prohibits retaliation, intimidation, threats, coercion, or discrimination against any individual for opposing or complaining about discrimination, or for participating in the District’s discrimination complaint process or making a complaint, testifying, assisting, appealing or participating in any other discrimination complaint, proceeding or hearing.
