

SUPPLEMENTARY INSTRUCTIONAL MATERIALS

Supplemental Texts, Materials, Films and Videos

District staff will be guided by the following additional criteria in selecting and using supplemental texts, materials, films and videos in the classroom:

1. Supplemental texts, materials, films and videos will be related to the purpose of the course.
2. Parents/guardians will be informed of the use of supplemental texts, materials, films and videos that contain material that is potentially offensive in terms of violence, profanity, or sexually explicit scenes.
  - a. The teacher will send home a letter explaining the educational purpose and sensitive elements of the supplemental text, material, film or video.
  - b. The teacher will provide for parents' right of refusal for minors to view supplemental texts, materials, films or videos that may not be suitable for their children.
  - c. The teacher will have parental permission and principal approval before showing "R" rated films or videos to minors or using supplemental texts and materials that are offensive in terms of violence, profanity, or sexually explicit scenes.
  - d. The teacher will provide an alternative, supervised activity for any student who does not view a film or video, or read supplemental text or materials.
3. The student may choose not to view a supplemental text, material, film or video that he/she considers upsetting or offensive.
4. All materials used in the classes of the Northern Humboldt Union High School District are available to parents/guardians for examination.
