

Specifics about the fair:

- The gym will be filled with various college representatives from around the state of Texas and around the nation.
- Fifteen-minute information sessions will take place in the 100 & 200 Halls. These sessions will provide you with information on the specified topic as well as give you the opportunity to ask questions. The following information sessions will take place:
 - Texas A&M (Guidance Office) – Information will be provided regarding admissions and benefits of attending Texas A&M. There will not be an A&M table in the gym so you must attend one of these sessions to get information about Texas A&M.
 - University of Texas (Room 112) – Information will be provided regarding admissions and benefits of attending the University of Texas. There will not be a UT table in the gym so you must attend one of these sessions to get information about UT.
 - Test Prep (Room 204) – A representative from The Woodlands Test Prep will provide information about test preparation opportunities for the SAT and ACT.
 - Financial Aid (Room 113) – A financial aid specialist will provide general information regarding the financial aid process.

All sessions will run at the following times:

1:20 – 1:35
1:40 – 1:55
2:00 – 2:15
2:20 – 2:35
2:40-2:55

Please be on time to sessions. Once the door is closed, and the session begins, you will not be allowed into the room; therefore, you must wait for the next session.*

Freshman College Fair Assignment

Before the fair:

- Go to www.clhs-tx.org; Academics; Guidance/Counseling; College Guidance; College Fair
- Once on the website, review the following materials:
 - 2018 CLHS College Fair Attendees
 - How to Get the most Out of a College Fair
 - Questions to Ask College Representatives
 - Top 10 Things to Consider When Choosing the Right College
- Using the Scanner Registration Flyer as a guide, register and print off your bar code. You must have this at the fair. You will not find Concordia listed as a school option so Sign up for October 8th - 12th TACRAO. You can use this same bar code if you decide to attend the Klein ISD college fair on the evening of October 9th.

During the fair:

- 1:13 p.m. Freshmen will go to their assigned classrooms.
- 1:45 p.m. Freshmen will go to the gym.
- Bring paper, pencil/pen, bar code, and a bag for materials you collect
- Spend time in the gym
 - You should visit a minimum of 2 colleges. Ask each college rep, at minimum, the following 3 questions:
 - What is one thing that is unique about your college/university? (ex: traditions, clubs/organizations, etc...)
 - Do you offer _____ major? If so, can you please share a little about it?
 - A question of your choice – this question should not be about something easily found in a brochure. Be creative – what do you really want to know?
- Attend minimum of 1 information session. You may select the session that you attend but you must attend a minimum of 1 session. Listen intently and ask questions. You must take note of 5 pieces of information that you find interesting or useful in your college search. You will need this information for your assignment.

Assignment/Homework: DUE October 17th/18th (Theology Classes)

Prepare a typed report on the information that you learned from the college fair. Be sure to include the following in your report:

1. Information about 1 of the colleges that you visited in the gym.
 - a. Based on the questions you asked, list 3 things you learned about a college.
 - b. Include your thoughts about how this college would be a good/bad fit for you and why.
2. Share 3 pieces of information that you learned in the session you attended.

Reminders:

- Separate from your friends during this time!
- Do NOT form groups towards the end and just stand around. Use your time WISELY!
