

Advisory Announcements 12/19/18

1. Come to the BBT today after school for a winter party hosted by leadership club! THIS IS A FREE EVENT! The movie ELF will be playing, there will be gingerbread house making, sugar cookie decorating, hot cocoa with marshmallows, and we will end the party with a snowball fight! Come join the fun! Party ends around 3:30.
2. EBA PRIDE T-SHIRT CONTEST: Leadership Club is holding a t-shirt design contest! Please submit your t-shirt design to Ms. Lyell before winter break – by 12/21/18. T-shirt must include “East Bay Arts” somewhere in the design. THIS WILL NOT BE USED FOR REBRANDING EBA – we simply want an EBA Pride shirt design.
3. Expressions – don’t forget - ALL PROJECTS ARE DUE BY FRIDAY, JANUARY 11TH!! If you will have recorded music in the background for your performance, you must upload the MP3 file to the Z drive on the school’s network in the folder titled “2018-2019 Expressions Music Files” by January 11th. See Loveland, Mills, or Hagan if you need help.
4. Expressions College of Music Reminder - If you would like studio time at lunch or after school, see Ms. Loveland or Mr. Hagan for available times.
5. Attention all 11th grade students...PSAT scores are available on CollegeBoard.org. You can log in to review and access details about your test scores. If you need support please see Mrs. Leary during nutrition break or lunch.
6. Summer internship opportunities available for 11th grade students. Many different career options! This looks great on your college application!! You must submit an interest google form to be considered!! Come see Ms. Lyell in the library for information!!

7. Attention to all students! A leadership opportunity is available – join the Student Advisory Council! Meetings will be at the different high schools throughout the year. The next meeting is next week, location to be determined. At this meeting you will guide your student board representative, Sandyha Nath, in making informed decisions and bringing forward issues that face our school at a district level. It is a great community service opportunity and it looks fabulous on a college application or resume. See Ms. Lyell for more information.
8. Wanted: bottle caps from 2-liter or 20-oz bottles. Please bring to Ms. Bakowsky in the office.
