FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ST. LANDRY PARISH SCHOOL DISTRICT JOB FOR AMERICA'S GRADUATES (JAG) SPECIALIST IS BEING NATIONALLY RECOGNIZED

JUNE 5, 2019

OPELOUSAS, LA - One of St. Landry Parish School District JAG Specialists is amongst a small group of recipients of the national '5 for 5' Performance Outcomes Award." Susan Mouton, Northwest High School JAG Specialist, is being recognized at the annual National JAG Conference in Orlando, Florida in July.

Eligibility for the '5 of 5' Performance Outcome Awards hinges on 5 key factors which include

- Graduation Rate
- Positive Outcomes Rate
- Employment Rate
- Full-Time Jobs Rate
- Full-Time Placement Rate

Additionally, each month the National JAG Program recognizes status changes in Positive Job Placement. Mrs. Mouton and Ms. Kellie Hall, Opelousas High JAG Specialist, were recognized on the National JAG website for Positive Job Placement in the month of May.

St. Landry Parish School District is extremely proud of the hard work and dedication Mrs. Mouton and Ms. Hall put into making their program a success, subsequently helping their students become successful in school and in the workforce.
