

Medical Lake SCHOOL DISTRICT

MLSD TRAINING: 2018-19 DISTRICT COURSE CATALOG

OCTOBER	10/17/18 6:00 pm- 8:00 pm	Suicide Prevention – and QPR training: QPR stands for Question, Persuade, and Refer — the 3 simple steps anyone can learn to help save a life from suicide. People trained in QPR learn how to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> · Recognize someone in crisis · Review the risk of suicide · Reach out and offer support · Apply a suicide intervention model · Link people with community resources
	Trainer/s:	Sabrina Votava, President, Fail Safe for Life Suzanne Greenhall, Marriage and Family Therapist – Whitworth Intern
	Location: Audience:	Hallett Elementary (Library) parents, guardians, caregivers, staff
NOVEMBER	11/6/18 6:00 pm- 8:00 pm	Recognizing the signs of PTSD: Could someone you love be experiencing Post traumatic stress disorder? Benefits of attending: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> · Understand what PTSD is · Understand who can develop PTSD · Understand the effects of PTSD on the brain and the subsequent symptoms · Understand how PTSD can impact marriage and family relationships · Identify tips and resources for managing the symptoms of PTSD
	Trainer/s:	Suzanne Greenhall, Marriage and Family Therapist – Whitworth Intern potential guest speakers from Whitworth Dr. Mark Baird and Dr. Dave Baird
	Location: Audience:	Hallett Elementary (Library) parents, guardians, caregivers, staff
NOVEMBER	11/14/18 4:00 pm- 6:00 pm	Pre-sports: Play activities to Get your Child Ready for any Sport With higher numbers of students specializing in sports at an

		earlier age, the number of injuries requiring medical treatment, including surgery, are on the rise for teens. Cross training has been thought of as a good way to reduce injury by decreasing the likelihood of muscle imbalance and overuse. This introduction to purposeful play will review body systems related to movement in order to provide a background for developing broad based play strategies to improve coordination and motor planning that is anticipated to lay the foundation for more optimal sport performance with a reduced risk for injury.
JANUARY	Trainer/s: Location: Audience:	Dr. Chris Beadle, Physical Therapist for MLSD Hallett Elementary (Library) parents, guardians, caregivers, staff
	01/08/2019 6:00 pm- 8:00 pm	No Drama Discipline: Describes an approach that incorporates observation with knowledge of the individual child, situation, and child development to guide appropriate behavior.
JANUARY	Trainer/s: Location: Audience:	Dr. Theresa McDowell, Medical Lake SD psychologist Hallett Elementary (Library) parents, guardians, caregivers, staff
	01/15/2019 6:00 pm- 8:00 pm	Overcoming parent/adult child communication challenges: Whether you are parenting a toddler or a teenager or working with one, good communication is the key to building; positive parent child relationships and mutual respect. Benefits of attending: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> · Identify your preferred communication style · Identify positive ways to communicate with your child · Identify effective ways to communicate during a conflict · Identify ways to avoid negative communication

	Trainer/s: Location: Audience:	Suzanne Greenhall, Marriage and Family Therapist – Whitworth Intern Hallett Elementary (Library) parents, guardians, caregivers, staff
JANUARY	01/24/2019 5:00 pm- 7:00 pm	Developing Healthy Boundaries: This course allows the learner to identify healthy physical, emotional and mental boundaries. Allowing for the true self to emerge and live a happier life.
	Trainer/s: Location: Audience:	Tawni Barlow, Special Services Director for MLSD Hallett Elementary (Library) parents, guardians, caregivers, staff
February	02/05/2019 6:00 pm- 8:00 pm	Depression: Depression is not a sign of weakness. It is a mood disorder that can cause severe symptoms that may affect how one; feels, thinks, and handles daily activities such as sleeping, eating, and working. Depression is also a treatable medical condition. Benefits of attending: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> · Understand the risk factors for depression · Identify the signs and symptoms of depression · Determine if you or a loved one is dealing with depression · Identity tips and resources for managing the symptoms of depression
	Trainer/s: Location: Audience:	Suzanne Greenhall, Marriage and Family Therapist – Whitworth Intern Hallett Elementary (Library) parents, guardians, caregivers, staff
FEBRUARY	2/12/19 6:00 pm- 8:00 pm	Understanding Individual Education Programs (IEPs) An Individualized Education Program (IEP) is a written statement for a student eligible for special education that is developed, reviewed, and revised in accordance with state and federal laws. The IEP guides your student's learning while in special education. It describes the amount of time that your student will spend receiving special education, any related services your student will receive, and the academic/behavioral goals and expectations for the year.

	Trainer/s:	Gwyn Prater, School Psychologist for MLSD Kathryn Ellis, Special Education Teacher for MLSD
	Location:	Hallett Elementary (Library)
FEBRUARY	Audience:	parents, guardians, caregivers, staff
	02/21/19 5:00 pm- 7:00 pm	Setting Boundaries with Difficult People: Explore and learn the 6 steps to sanity. Learning these 6 steps allows the learners to recognize when others have overstepped their boundaries, re-set their own boundaries and take back their life.
	Trainer/s:	Tawni Barlow, Special Services Director for MLSD
	Location:	Hallett Elementary (Library)
	Audience:	parents, guardians, caregivers, staff
	MARCH
03/05/2019 6:00 pm- 8:00 pm
Trainer/s:		Suzanne Greenhall, Marriage and Family Therapist – Whitworth Intern

	Location:	Hallett Elementary (Library)
	Audience:	parents, guardians, caregivers, staff
March	03/12/19 4:00p-6:00p	5 Activities to Improve Concentration The nervous system is composed of a complex group of peripheral sensory organs and the central nervous system which processes this information, stores it and plans and coordinates motor responses. It has been estimated that each neuron fires on average 200 times per second, the mature brain is able to organize and prioritize this myriad of information. This presentation will review various parts of the nervous system and describe motor based activities designed to enhance concentration and attention in the developing neuromuscular system.
	Trainer/s:	Dr. Chris Beadle, Physical Therapist for MLSD
	Location:	Hallett Elementary (Library)
	Audience:	parents, guardians, caregivers, staff
April	04/09/2019 6:00 pm- 8:00 pm	Separation and Divorce and the impact on the children Parents have many worries on their mind in the midst of a separation or divorce, including how the children will deal with the separation or divorce, and often feel troubled by and unprepared for their children’s reactions to a separation and divorce. Benefits of attending: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> · Learn tips for caring for yourself in the process · Gain understanding as to how separation of divorce impacts a child based on the age of the child at the time of separation/divorce · Learn how to minimize the effects of separation or divorce for your child based on their respective age at the time of separation or divorce
	Trainer/s:	Suzanne Greenhall, Marriage and Family Therapist – Whitworth Intern Hallett Elementary (Library) parents, guardians, caregivers, staff
	04/16/2019 4:00 pm-	Sensory Strategies for the Home and Community What is the Sensory System and Self-Regulation? We use

April	6:00 pm	our Sensory System to evaluate and control how we react and behave. It guides our ability to block out unimportant sensory stimuli and attend to tasks at hand. Our ability to process sensory information is a foundational skill. It gives us ability to take in information from our surroundings, process it, and organize it to focus and complete our daily activities. Objectives: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Neurological Pathways and Sensory System Anatomy • Reduce problem behaviors • Sensory activities and strategies to increase calming
	Trainer/s: Josee Tareski, Occupational Therapist & Michelle Sylvester, Certified Occupational Therapist Assistant for MLSD Location: Hallett Elementary (Library) Audience: parents, guardians, caregivers, staff
April	04/30/2019 5:00 pm- 7:00 pm	Solutions Reduce talking about problems and focus on constructing solutions. Understand how we communicate with one another, satisfy our needs, and organize our everyday lives. Learn how to speak in terms of competencies and strengths. This is a practical based course for helping others find solutions to life's challenges.
	Trainer/s: Tawni Barlow, Special Services Director for MLSD Location: Hallett Elementary (Library) Audience: parents, guardians, caregivers, staff
May	05/08/2019 4:00 pm- 6:00 pm	Speech and Language services in schools and at home <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Learn what a Speech-Language Pathologist does • Learn about developmental norms for speech and language • Understand communication disorders • Learn activities to encourage speech and language development at home
	Trainer/s: Tori Baldwin, Speech Language Pathologist Keri Wissink, Speech Language Pathologist Kelsey White, Speech Language Pathologist District Speech team from MLSD Location: Hallett Elementary (Library) Audience: parents, guardians, caregivers, staff

