

DAILY ANNOUNCEMENT

Friday, November 9, 2018

Our Thought for the Day is:

When we do the best we can, we never know what miracle is wrought in our life or in the life of another.

"Speech and Debate club will meet today in room 305 for all members who are not members of NJHS. Please come after school today to room 305. If you have any questions, please see Ms. Weinstein."

November is National American Indian Heritage Month

Within the United States there are 573 federally recognized tribes. In Nevada our biggest tribes are the Paiute and Shoshone, but we are home to many other indigenous peoples as well.
