PROHIBITED INTERNET USE POLICY FOR EMPLOYEES

Internet access is coordinated through a complex association of government agencies, private industry, and regional and state networks. However, there is no agency or company "in charge" of the Internet. The district has taken some precautions to restrict access to inappropriate materials. However, users are advised that some material on the Internet may be defamatory, inaccurate, obscene, profane, sexually oriented, threatening, racially offensive, or illegal. We do not condone the use of these materials. We do not permit it in the school environment. The District reserves the right to determine according to District standards whether any action violates appropriate use of district internet access. The following are examples of actions not permitted:

1. Using the network for commercial advertising.
2. Using copyrighted material in reports without permission.
3. Using the network to lobby for votes.
4. Using the network to access a file that contains pornographic pictures.
5. Using the network to send/receive messages that are racist.
6. Using the network to send/receive inflammatory messages.
7. Using the network to send/receive a message with someone else's name on it.
8. Using the network to send/receive a message that is inconsistent with the school's code of conduct.
9. Using the network to send a computer virus.
10. Using the network to receive or provide addresses or other personal information that others may use inappropriately
11. Using the district's network account for sending and receiving a large number of personal messages.
12. Use the system without signing the Internet User Agreement.
13. Send any material in violation of any federal or state law or regulation. This includes non-exclusively copyrighted material, threatening or obscene material, or material protected by trade secret.
14. Impair or damage the operations of the District system or disrupt the use of the system by another user.
15. Intimidation, harassment or cyberbullying are forbidden, EC 48900.
16. Share your individual, private account and/or password to someone at school without the account owner's prior knowledge and consent.

I AGREE TO FOLLOW THE DISTRICT POLICIES AS WELL AS ALL OTHER REGULATIONS REGARDING THE USE OF TECHNOLOGY IN A SCHOOL DISTRICT.
