

DAILY ANNOUNCEMENT

Monday, October 08, 2018

Our Thought for the Day is:

It's not what position you hold in life that matters, it's that you choose to do what matters most in life that counts.

This is a reminder that the dog you see on campus with our student and our staff member is a service dog and is working while on campus. He is not to be approached, petted, or distracted by students at any time.

Today is the first day of the week of respect. This week let's take time to show respect to our friends, teachers and family by making a respect star. Remember-"Treat people the way you would want to be treated. Talk to people the way you want to be talked to. Respect is earned, not given." Hussein Nishah

Attention Hyde Park JV Quiz team. Team practice begins tomorrow after school in room 505. The JV Quiz team is open to new members of all grade levels. See you tomorrow!

All students taking the late bus on activity days. It is very important that you be in front of the school by 3:25 in the afternoon. The late bus will be leaving Hyde Park at 3:30.

Here is Mrs. Belknap with today's words of wisdom.
