

News You Can Use from the Principal

May 13, 2019

Today marks the last full day of school for the Class of 2019. I came to St. Joe the same year they did, so I've had the honor of watching them grow and mature into the strong individuals they are today. Please join me in prayer for them as they continue along the journey God has laid out for them. God's speed Seniors! Blaze the trail and be your best! #alwaysaBruin

- Our last Mass of the school year will be this Thursday. Regular uniform.
- Exams for grades 7-11 begin Monday, May 20. Check the handbook for the schedule adjusting for one day earlier than originally planned. There will be no school Friday, May 24.
- This Friday is Awards Day at St. Joe. Middle School awards begin in the auditorium at 9 am followed by their annual picnic. High School awards ceremonies will begin at 1:30 in the auditorium. If your student will be receiving an academic or service award, you will be notified by email within the next day or so.
- We have two more Tuesday morning detentions: tomorrow and May 21.
- Did you get the set-up reminder email about FACTS? Please, please make an effort to get that set up immediately. It is an important step in making the flow of communication and finances easier and less expensive for everyone. Please get your parish verification forms in also.
- I need to remind everyone of a few housekeeping points:
 - Students should be dropped off and picked up in the carpool line near the cafeteria before or after school. Please adhere to the instructed course in order to insure efficiency and safety for all souls on campus.
 - All printing fines and any other fees must be paid prior to exams being taken. Sports uniforms must be turned in as well as library books and textbook. MacBooks and iPads must have the chargers returned with the device. Textbooks must be returned, and damage fines must be paid.
 - If your student is tardy for school, they must come to the office to sign in.
- Remember that carpool lines for exams next week will be long. Please be aware of the faculty out there directing traffic and be patient. We'll get you in and out as quickly as we can always mindful of safety.
- Uniform reminder: uniforms must be worn to exams.

God bless,
Mrs. Kinsey
