Free Summer Youth Lunch Program

The free Lunch program is a federally-funded child nutrition program sponsored locally by the City of Sacramento Department of Parks and Recreation. Any child ages 1-18 can show up at a summer food site (there are more than 125 sites in Sacramento County) and eat a free lunch. This program is intended to provide the nutritious lunch that so many kids depend on during the summer months, when school is out of session. Sites are located in kid-friendly places such as parks, recreation centers and apartment complexes. To find out about sites in your neighborhood, call the Summer Food Service Program at (916) 324-6153.

Jobs

Whether you baby-sit, bag groceries, or serve food, having a summer job gets you some extra cash and prevents boredom during those long, lazy summer days. Check local businesses for openings or go to www.sacjobs.com for a listing of local jobs.

Volunteer Opportunities: Regional Center for Volunteerism-HandsOn Sacramento

Volunteering with the Regional Center for Volunteerism-HandsOn Sacramento is easy. Register on the website or download an application form, fill it out, and return via fax or mail. Once the application is received, you may sign up for projects. HOS works in partnership with a variety of community-based organizations to match individuals, groups, families, and businesses with high-impact, short-term volunteer projects in the greater Sacramento area. HOS volunteers receive a monthly newsletter or can access the HOS website calendar to find out about and sign up for volunteer projects. HOS projects occur in the evenings or on weekends and do not require a long-term commitment. The service is free and accessible to potential volunteers of all ages and backgrounds. Visit the website to see upcoming volunteer opportunities.
