

College and Career Focus: Newspaper and Yearbook Journalism

This is information to guide instruction and a resource for family and students to have a better understanding of where the educational value in the specific class will aid in College, Career, life choice, and technology.

How can students use the material in college	How can students use material in career	Resources for students to aid in specific career choice
Journalism is an extension of research skills. Students will know how to make editorial decisions and analyze content.	If students choose a career in writing/publishing, they will have a basic knowledge of the necessary skills.	Internet resources; distinguished leaders in various professions.
Significantly important content to remember		Technology standards and skills needed for college and career
Ethics in publishing. Content analysis. Identify and avoid bias. Awareness of current events.		8.1 and 8.2 standards listed
21st Century Life and Careers		Technology Skills Required
Standards that correlate with career bands 9.1-9.3.		General computer/internet knowledge. Knowledge of editing and publishing programs. Graphic design skills.