Free Concert: Cuicani
Sat, Sep, 21, 2 - 3 pm

For Adults

Free Concert: Cuicani

Saturday, September 21, 2 - 3 pm

Come enjoy a free live concert from Afro-Caribbean group Cuicani.

Cuicani performs a combination of Afro-Caribbean and Afro-Latin music along with the multicultural influences of local L.A. sounds. Its repertoire includes original songs written by various members of the collective as well as reggae, cumbia, and Latin classics. Cuicani's sound is comparable to Manu Chao, Bob Marley and the Wailers, and Santana.

All ages welcome.

This concert is made possible through an LA County Arts Commission Grant provided by LA County Supervisor Janice Hahn.

Hispanic Heritage Adult Yarn Art Activity

Monday, September 23, 5 - 6 pm

Celebrate Hispanic Heritage Month by creating your own Yarn Painting (Nierikas) inspired by the art of the Huichol. Descendants of the Aztec, the Huichol people number about 18,000, and mostly live in the sierra of Jalisco and Nayarit, Mexico. Traditionally made from tree resin and beeswax, you'll make your own with colorful cotton yarn and glue.

Hispanic Heritage Month recognizes and celebrates the culture, contributions, and heritage of Hispanic Americans and is observed from September 15 to October 15. Join us and make your own colorful yarn art!

For Everyone
