

SCHOOL INTEGRATION in Jackson Heights & NYC

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 29

7:00-8:30PM

AT: JACKSON HEIGHTS
JEWISH CENTER

37-06 77TH STREET

SPEAKERS:

- Matt Gonzales, Director, School Diversity Project, NY Appleseed
- Lazar Treschan, Director of Youth Policy, Community Service Society of NY (on integrating the specialized high schools)
- Chris Rice, Senior Planner, WXY (on the District 15 middle school integration plan)

NYC's schools are deeply segregated by race, class, and language status. Communities across the city have started to demand integration, and for the first time since the 1970's, the Department of Education is poised to act. Come learn about the plans to integrate District 15 (Brooklyn) middle schools and the specialized high schools, and how we can integrate our schools in Jackson Heights.

Sponsored by:

- Jackson Heights People for Public Schools
