

Screen Out the Mean

Essential Question

What can you do when someone is mean to you online?

Lesson Overview

Students learn that children sometimes can act like bullies when they are online. They explore what cyberbullying means and what they can do when they encounter it.

Students first read a scenario about mean online behavior. They then discuss what cyberbullying is, how it can make people feel, and how to respond. Then they use their knowledge to create a simple tip sheet on cyberbullying. Students recognize that it is essential to tell a trusted adult if something online makes them feel angry, sad, or scared.

Learning Objectives

Students will be able to ...

- analyze online behaviors that could be considered cyberbullying.
- explain how to deal with a cyberbullying situation.
- recognize the importance of engaging a trusted adult when they experience cyberbullying.

Materials and Preparation

- Copy the STOP Cyberbullying Student Handout, one for each student.
- Preview the scenario in Teach 2 and be prepared to present it to the class.

Family Resources

- Send home the Cyberbullying Family Tip Sheet (Elementary School).

cyberbullying: doing something on the internet, usually again and again, to make another person feel angry, sad, or scared

introduction

Warm-up (5 minutes)

ENCOURAGE students to share what they know about bullying.

ASK:

What kinds of things count as bullying?

Students should understand that bullying is behavior that is purposely mean or scary to someone else – for example, making fun of how someone looks, telling lies about them behind their back, or threatening to do something bad to them.

How does bullying make other people feel?

Sample responses:

- Hurt
- Angry
- Upset
- Scared

What is the best thing to do when you feel bullied, or when you see someone else being bullied?

Students should know to always tell a trusted adult when they experience or witness bullying.

EXPLAIN to students that they will be learning about a kind of bullying that can take place when they use the Internet.

teach 1

What Is Cyberbullying? (15 minutes)

DEFINE the Key Vocabulary term online.

DISCUSS the fact that some kids don't go online very much at all, either because of their family's rules or because they don't like it very much. Other kids do go online to do different things.

ASK:

What do you do online, or what do you think you might like to do?

Students may mention sending emails, instant messaging, and playing games.

SHARE with students that most of the time when they go online it is to do fun or interesting things. But sometimes people can be mean to each other online and this is called cyberbullying.

DEFINE the Key Vocabulary term cyberbullying.

EMPHASIZE that when children are mean to someone else online, even if they only do it one time, it isn't nice. Also stress that cyberbullies usually bully repeatedly, with the intention of causing hurt feelings. When children do something very mean and/or scary, or do it over and over again, then they are cyberbullying.

SHARE with students some examples of cyberbullying. These might include:

- sending a mean email or IM to someone
- posting mean things about someone on a website
- making fun of someone in an online chat
- doing mean things to someone's character in an online world like Club Penguin or WebKinz

ASK:

Did you ever see someone make someone else feel bad online?

Answers will vary. Reminds students to tell what happened, but not use real names.

EXPLAIN to students that they will be learning more about how cyberbullying occurs, and what to do when it happens to them or to someone they know.

teach 2

What to Do About Cyberbullying (20 minutes)

DISTRIBUTE the STOP Cyberbullying Student Handout, one for every student.

GUIDE students through the scenario on the handout. After allowing students time to read it on their own, you may wish to read it aloud.

Jada's parents let her play on a website where she can take care of a pet pony and decorate its stall. Her friend Michael has played with her in the past and knows her user name and password. One day Jada goes to the site to care for her pony. She finds that her pony's stall is a mess and that there are some things missing.

ENCOURAGE the class to answer the questions on their handouts. Invite them to share their answers.

ASK:

What do you think happened?

Students should conclude that Michael went to the website himself and messed up the pony's stall.

How do you think this made Jada feel?

Students should recognize that Michael's behavior probably made Jada feel upset, sad, angry, or let down by her friend.

DIRECT students' attention to the four rules for dealing with cyberbullying at the bottom of their STOP Cyberbullying Student Handout. Use the following questions to guide discussion.

ASK:

How will you know when someone is cyberbullying you?

Students should recognize that they may be experiencing cyberbullying whenever someone does something online that makes them feel sad, scared, angry, or upset in any way.

Why do you think it is important to stop using the computer when someone starts cyberbullying you?

Students should realize that if they stay online, the cyberbullying may continue or get worse.

If someone makes you feel angry, sad, or scared online, which grown-ups can you tell and ask for help?

Students may name parents or grandparents, an older sister or brother, a teacher, or the school nurse or counselor. If students cannot think of someone right away, help them brainstorm and identify an appropriate adult.

Why is it important to go online only with an adult, or when an adult says it is OK?

Students should recognize that adults can help guide them online and keep them safe from cyberbullying.

How can you decide whether you should play or chat with someone online?

Students should acknowledge that they need adult guidance in deciding who to connect with online. If someone is very mean to them, or is mean repeatedly, then that person is a cyberbully and should not be contacted online. Remind students that they should never talk to strangers online either without asking a trusted adult, even if that person is nice or has shared interests.

Which of the four things do you think is the most important?

Students should recognize that telling an adult is the single most important thing they should do if they experience or witness cyberbullying.

REVISIT the scenario in the STOP Cyberbullying Student Handout, and have students apply the S-T-O-P rules to Jada's situation.

- Jada should STOP using the computer.
- Jada should TELL an adult she trusts what happened.
- Jada should not go back online or return to the pony website when an adult says it is OK.
- If Jada and Michael are good friends, Jada may want to tell Michael how his actions made her feel, after she gets advice from an adult.
- But if Michael continues cyberbullying her, she should play with other kids who don't take part in cyberbullying.

Wrap-up (5 minutes)

You can use these questions to assess your students' understanding of the lesson objectives.

ASK:

What is cyberbullying? How does it make people feel?

Students should recognize that cyberbullying is any kind of online behavior that makes people feel sad, scared, angry, or upset.

What four things can you do to help stop cyberbullying?

Students should be able to explain each of the four rules on the STOP Cyberbullying Student Handout.

What is the most important thing to do if someone starts cyberbullying you?

Students should understand that telling a trusted adult is the most important response whenever someone makes them feel sad, scared, or angry online.

- Both a and b

Screen Out the Mean

1. Draw lines to show which things a cyberbully would do most and which things an in-person bully would do most.

Answer feedback

A cyberbully does and says mean things online. An in-person bully is mean in person.

2. A cyberbully might:

- a) Write an email to make someone feel scared
- b) Say mean things at recess
- c) Share a knock-knock joke online

Answer feedback

The correct answer is a. Cyberbullies are mean online.

3. What should you do if you are cyberbullied?

- a) Stop using the computer until it is safe
- b) Tell an adult you trust
- c) Both a and b

Answer feedback

The correct answer is c. If someone is mean to you online, get off the computer and tell an adult. Saying mean things to a cyberbully won't help.

 DID YOU KNOW ...

Being nice to other people not only makes them feel happy, but it makes you happier too!

Match the words to their definitions

- | | |
|--------------------------|---|
| caution | the words you use to search for information about a topic |
| digital footprint | the information about you on the Internet |
| cyberbullying | to be careful |
| keywords | doing something on the Internet, usually again and again, to make another person feel angry, sad, or scared |

 WHAT DO YOU THINK?

What is the most important thing to do if someone starts cyberbullying you?

1. Family Activity

With a parent or family member, read the following two dilemmas. First, think together about how the kids in the stories might feel when this happens. Then, use the S-T-O-P rules to describe how they should respond. --> Kyle keeps getting IMs from someone saying means things about him. The person who is sending the messages doesn't use a real name, but Kyle can tell the messages are coming from someone who also makes fun of him at school in gym class. --> Sasha is a new girl at school, and she's making a lot of friends. Then Sasha finds out that another girl sent around an email that had a picture of a cow with Sasha's name on it.

 DO YOU REMEMBER ...
What you can do when someone is mean to you online?

2. Tech It Up!

On YouTube, watch Sesame Street's "Because We're Friends" song (<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=SAjXikmpv4>). What do the Muppets in the video do because they're friends? What do you think friends should do if another friend is being cyberbullied?

3. Common Sense Says ...

If someone is cyberbullying you, remember the S-T-O-P rules!
S: Stop using the computer until it's safe.

- T: Tell an adult you trust.
- O: Go Online only when a trusted adult says it's OK
- P: Play online only with kids who are nice.

My Creative Work

* DID YOU KNOW ...

A "signature" is one way to tell who created a work. A signature is a special way of writing your name.

Unjumble to find the hidden words

* WHAT DO YOU THINK?

Why is it important to give yourself credit on your artwork?

 DO YOU REMEMBER ...
How you can give credit to your creative work?

1. Family Activity

Find a favorite book in your house and work together with a family member to find out how it's credited. Can you identify:

- 1). the title, 2). the author, and 3). the illustrator of the cover?
- Hunt together for the copyright date, which always appears on the title page with the symbol ©.

2. Tech It Up!

See if you can find the book online and locate the same information in the digital version! (Sites such as Amazon.com or BarnesandNoble.com often allow you to see the first pages of the books they sell.)

3. Common Sense Says ...

Take credit for your own work (by signing it with your name) and make sure to give others credit for their work! In giving themselves credit, artists can show that they're proud of their work. Also, others can learn more about the artist (by searching online!), share their work, or cite the work later on.

Student Computer Pledge

Computers are great, computers are cool
Let's have fun and be safe at school
My password and username may be really neat
But Shhh! They're a secret, I truly must keep Getting online is great for leaning except for when bad things are lurking
Meeting people online may put me in danger
So I must stay far away from cyber strangers
I promise that if I run into any trouble
I will tell my teacher or parent on the double
My information I must never give
Not a name, not a number, or even where I live
I promise not to bully and be polite
And never say mean things, that may start a fight
After all
Computers are great, computers are cool
Let's follow the computer rules

Teacher's Name _____ Date _____

Class Name _____

We pledge to:

1. Stop a hurtful rumor either online/offline whenever we can.
2. Tell an adult when we know of a plan to start a fight in our school.
3. Tell an adult/teacher when we know of someone being bullied or cyberbullied.
4. Tell an adult when something makes us scared, sad, or uncomfortable on the Internet.

We promise to:

1. Respect all other students.
2. Respect other student belongings.
3. Always treat others the way we want to be treated.
4. Be nice to others.
