The Register's All-County boys basketball teams for the 2017-18 season.

FIRST TEAM

Dawson Baker, Capistrano Valley, Sr.

Baker was Sea View League Player of the Year. A 6-foot-3 guard, Baker averaged 22 points, seven rebounds and three assists. He could score in a variety of ways, and he was consistent at it – only one game in single-figure scoring. Baker plans to sign with UC Irvine this month.

Harrison Butler, Mater Dei, Sr.

The 6-6 forward averaged 11 points and six rebounds. He was the Monarchs' best defensive player and was always assigned to cover the opponent's best offensive player. Butler was an All-Trinity League first-team selection. He grabbed a team-high rebounds in the CIF Southern Section Open Division championship game. He signed with Southern Utah.

Jake Kyman, Santa Margarita, Jr.

Kyman is the only non-senior on the All-County first team. He was named to the All-Trinity League first team and All CIF Southern Section Open Division team. Kyman, a 6-7 guard/forward, averaged a team-high 17 points with six rebounds. He has scholarship offers from several colleges, including UCLA and USC.

Michael Wang, Mater Dei, Sr.

The 6-10 forward became one of the Monarchs' most dependable scorers and rebounders, averaging 14 points and six rebounds. He made 146 3-pointers on 381 attempts (38 percent). He will go to Penn, where he is enrolled in the prestigious Wharton School of Business.
