

On June 8th our friend and neighbor, Erik Daniels, will be presenting his photo essay on the Voting Rights Act of 1965 at the Bordentown Library.

10:15am in the large meeting room downstairs

The Voting Rights Act is a defining moment in our country. Its legacy, as well as that of the Civil Rights Act continues to be a source of inspiration for the struggle for equality in America.

The goal of this photo essay is to provide an overview of the Voting Rights Act and information on other African American landmarks.

Erik Daniels brings unique perspectives as a social studies teacher and as a young man that spent his summers in Selma Alabama.

The presentation is interactive and lasts about 45 minutes.
