

Notre Dame High School

Transcript Release and Confidentiality Form

To the Applicant's Parent/Guardian:

Notre Dame High School requires confidential recommendations from current teachers, and her counselor or principal. Accordingly, for these confidential recommendation forms to be released by the current school, parents must waive their right to inspect these confidential forms.

Under Federal Law, The Family and Educational Rights and Privacy Act, parents or legal guardians must authorize the release of school records.

Please complete this form and return it to the office of the applicant's current school along with the required recommendation forms and Transcript Request Form for eighth grade students. Some schools have specific requirements for you to complete before they will release confidential information about your daughter to another school. This form does not need to be submitted to Notre Dame High School, only to the applicant's current school.
