Faculty claim victory over students

A seriously out-numbered faculty team defeated the students 32-28 on Friday to win the annual faculty-student basketball game that marked the end of the 2019 Catholic Schools Week.

Despite having a team of more than 20, many of whom are student athletes, the high schoolers found it tough to keep pace with an eight-member faculty squad that included Michael Howell, John Bond and Matthew Sigler.

Other big events from the week included the annual Grandparents-Sisters of Mercy Mass in the school gym that attracted hundreds of people.

On Thursday, St. Joe hosted a blood drive in the gym collecting 41 units of blood. And representatives and supporters from Catholic schools in the metropolitan Jackson area rallied at the Mississippi Capitol late that afternoon in support of Catholic education.
