English Final
Oral Presentation

On Thursday, May 24th, you will turn in your poetry book. As part of the project, you will present your “Rhyming Couplet” poem to the class. Please keep in mind the following:

• Be prepared! While you do not need to memorize your poem, you should be comfortable and confident with your delivery.
• Speak loud enough so that all audience members can hear
• Speak slowly; clearly annunciuate each word
• Speak with emotion; avoid sounding monotone
• Give eye contact; you should seldom look down at your poem
• Stand in a relaxed, but confident stance; do not rock or sway
