Beacon Academy does not discriminate against prospective students or their families on the basis of race, gender, ethnicity, socioeconomic status, sexual orientation, political and social values, culture, gender identity, religion, physical ability, family structure, and learning style in its administration of admission and financial aid policies.