Dear Parents/Guardians:

As the holiday season approaches, the Richland School District has much to celebrate and be thankful for as a result of our students' hard work and the efforts of a very dedicated and talented staff.

Recently, the Richland School District has learned of some very good news in terms of our academic achievements versus schools across the state with the same building or grade configurations on the new PA Future Ready Index or school report card that was recently released by the Pennsylvania Department of Education.

As our students and staff begin to prepare for the Christmas holiday break, Richland School District will be having a district-wide "Celebration of Learning" on Friday, December 21, 2018 with a free brunch and various activities for all of our students and staff to recognize their efforts on the PA Future Ready Index. We encourage all of our parents and our community to learn more about our success on Friday, December 21, 2018 by visiting our website, the Tribune Democrat website, or by purchasing a copy of the Tribune Democrat.

In closing, I want to extend my sincere appreciation to all of our students for a job well done and to our staff for their dedication to our new mission statement, "Empowering Every Student to Pursue Excellence Every Day." Our success is a direct result of a team effort led by a supportive Board of School Directors, a dedicated administration, faculty, and staff and our parents and students who believe and take great pride in our schools. Best wishes for a joyous holiday season!!

Sincerely,

Arnold J. Nadonley,
Superintendent
