Critical Reading/Writing

Grades 7-9 in September 2018

Week: July 22nd - 26th

Time: 8:30-11:30AM

Fee: $75

This session is for students to improve their writing skills for high school. In today's world of skimming headlines and quick texts, it is important to learn critical reading and writing skills. Participants will have the opportunity to analyze a short story and produce a finished essay.

Basketball

Grades 7-9 in September 2019

Week: July 8th - 12th

Time: 9:00am – 2:00pm

Fee: $75

Program highlights will focus on the fundamentals with an emphasis on dribbling, passing, shooting; defensive concepts for individuals and team; scrimmages and foul shooting skills; developing teamwork

Volleyball

Grades 7-10 in September 2019

Week: July 15th - 19th

Time: 9:00am - 2:0pm

Fee: $75

Program highlights will focus on developing fundamental skills: passing, setting, hitting and serving; defense and court positioning; serving techniques; scrimmages and teamwork.

Art

Ages 8-15

Week: August 5th - August 9th

Time: 10:00am - 2:00pm

Fee: $100

A great art camp for children interested in gaining skills in art over summer break. All skill levels welcome! Students will explore techniques of still life and figure drawing, painting, and mixed media art practices after exploring the Wagner Institute of Free Sciences to browse the catalogue of indigenous species of North America as inspiration for a summer art portfolio. This camp is highly recommended for students wishing to apply for a high school art scholarship. Hosted by Teaching Artist Ms Kelsie Lilly
