Discussion Agenda

1. The Board reviewed the May Schedule of Activities. Dr. Martin also informed the Board that Impact Yadkin would be using our facilities this summer as well as the Seeds of Hope Camp. In addition, our summer reading program will begin next week at Yadkinville Elementary School.

Comments

Dr. Martin thanked Kathy Hughes for the work she did pulling the CTE tour of advanced manufacturing facilities today. He stated the group visited Unifi, Hibco Plastics, Yadkin Center SCC, Austin Electrical and Lydall and that several of our CTE teachers from Forbush High and Starmount High, along with administrators, too part in this tour. Dr. Martin thanked those involved with recent budget decisions that had to be made and the Board for coming in on a called meeting. He stated we have had some difficult conversations and hard decisions to make and that everyone had been professional. He stated it is not an easy time for Yadkin County Schools; however, we are going through steps that are necessary. Lastly, he stated when you have a 1.2 million shortfall, this requires difficult decisions and cuts to be made.

Rex Baity congratulated James Sheek on his retirement and thanked him for working for Yadkin County Schools.

Howard McKnight thanked those in attendance at the meeting and stated he appreciated them being here and all that they do. He informed the Board that the next meeting would be July 1 and he stated he hoped each and everyone has a restful summer.
