Mayfield Schools names Employees of the Month for January 2019

Mayfield Independent Schools is pleased to announce the Employees of the Month for January 2019, Pam Carter and Nicole McGregor.

Pam works at Mayfield High School as an instructional assistant. Pam's nominator described her as a person who "the special education department is very lucky to have as an instructional assistant. She shows a great passion for difficult situations and truly cares about the students." Her nominator also explained, "She is a great role model for all students and a tremendous team player for the faculty and staff at Mayfield High School."

Nicole McGregor teaches sixth grade reading at Mayfield Middle School. Nicole's nominator described her as a person who "has taken on many roles outside of the expected duties and she works hard as the leader of the Lighthouse Team." Her nominator also explained, "Mrs. McGregor is a 'runner.' She does what needs to be done in order for the culture of our school to succeed. She works hard to make sure students, faculty, staff and even families know they are valued and appreciated."

Superintendent Joe Henderson expressed his appreciation for not only these outstanding employees for their dedication and hard work, but also for their nominators who took the time to recognize superior efforts among their colleagues.
