The Arroyo Grande Sportsman's Club is offering an award of $500-$1000 scholarship to a local student; of senior standing at the time of the application. Applicants must have career goals that will have a positive impact on physical, social or political environment for the conservation/preservation and propagation of fish and wildlife and the natural resources within the United States; forest service; fish and game service; and/or wildlife/environmental law.

APPLICATION PROCEDURE AND PROCESS

1. Complete the application below and then,
2. Write an essay that contains:
  - a. A description of your interest, knowledge and involvement in the protection, conservation, propagation and preservation of fish and wildlife as well as the natural resources within the United States; forest service; fish and game service and/or wildlife and environmental law enforcement.
  - b. A description of your college and career goals.
  - c. Why you think you are deserving of the scholarship.
3. Obtain two letters of recommendation from people familiar with your character and potential for contributing to the above causes. One letter should be from a high school guidance counselor or teacher, the other from persons outside the educational setting who know you and your involvement in the issues above and your academic achievements, extra curricular activities/volunteer associations. Those chosen to write letters of recommendation should mail the letters directly to: AGSC Scholarship Committee, P.O. Box 274, Arroyo Grande, CA 93421.
4. Only applications that are complete and postmarked or hand delivered to a member of the AGSC Board no later than May 6, 2019 will be considered.
5. Applicants who are considered as finalists will be required to meet with the AGSC Scholarship Committee for a personal interview. Recipient of the scholarship must attend an AGSC general meeting to accept the scholarship award. Scholarship funds will not be released until AGSC is in receipt of the applicant's college acceptance letter.
6. All completed applications will be acknowledged and considered. Applicants will be informed of the final decision by the Scholarship Committee by mail prior to school award ceremonies. AGSC reserves the option of not awarding a scholarship if no applicants are sufficiently qualified.

Please note: AGSC will not be able to return application materials, so applicants should retain a copy of the application and attachments for their own files.
