

CRISTO REY

FORT WORTH HIGH SCHOOL

at Our Mother of Mercy

Catholic High School Teacher

Cristo Rey Fort Worth High School at Our Mother of Mercy is centrally located one mile southeast of downtown Fort Worth in the historic Terrell Heights neighborhood. The private Catholic school educates young people of limited economic means to become women and men of faith, purpose, and service. Through a rigorous college preparatory curriculum, integrated with a corporate work study experience, students graduate ready to succeed in college and life.

Cristo Rey Fort Worth High School at Our Mother of Mercy opened its doors to its first class of students in July 2018 as the 35th school in the national network that started with one school in 1996. The student will add one grade level each school year until it serves up to 500 students across all four high school grade levels.
