March 16, 2020

Dear JMSD Middle/High School Students & Families,

On Friday, March 13, 2020 Governor Tom Wolf announced that all K-12 Pennsylvania schools be closed for ten business days starting today, Monday, March 16, 2020. In addition to school closures, all extra-curricular activities, including field trips and athletics have been suspended until further notice. At the end of ten days, the situation will be re-evaluated to determine if continued closure is needed. The health and safety of our students and staff will always be our number one priority.

If, at any time, your child needs additional support, guidance, or just another person to reassure them during the coming weeks, please do not hesitate to reach out:

In addition to Mr. Robinson & Mr. Loring, teachers are available via e-mail. Staff e-mails can be found via the JMSD website at www.jmsd.org.

Mr. Robinson and Mr. Loring will hold a Google Hangout session tomorrow morning, Tuesday, March 17, 2020 from 9:00am to 10:00am with 7-12 families who may have any questions pertaining to the upcoming weeks and assignments. The link for the Google Hangout session will be posted via email and all Jefferson-Morgan social media platforms tomorrow morning, Tuesday, March 17, 2020 at 8:45am.

These uncommon times will require uncommon flexibility, but we will get through this together!

Sincerely,

Brandon W. Robinson
Middle/High School Principal
