COCISD instructional teams get advanced training for success

COCISD instructional teams, including assistant principals, instructional content specialists and our instructional technology specialist, recently met with Dr. Lisa Severns and Gwen Bryant with Marzano Learning and Performance Management.

The teams gained important insights on how to unpack standards to create success criteria, learning targets for students, and learning statements. The overall focus of the training was to strengthen knowledge of the lesson planning process and monitoring.

After the morning session, the group completed walk

-throughs at James Street, Coldspring Intermediate and Lincoln Junior High to monitor lesson planning implementation.

This session utilized Marzano strategies, an evidence-based system that has been proven to improve the effectiveness of classroom instruction.

Instructional teams were coached in Marzano strategies, an evidence-based system that has been proven to be effective in the teaching process.
