Summer Reading Challenge

Incoming 4th grade

Complete one square for each month (June, July & August)-- then color each square to create a tic-toe-toe pattern (3 in a row.) The pattern can be vertical, horizontal or diagonal. Turn in the completed tic-tac-toe handout to your new teacher (with the activities) on the first day of school. This handout (and activities) will earn you a special award and you will participate in a reward celebration!

Read a fiction or nonfiction book. Design a character "webpage." (It can be on paper or a real website, such as Weebly.com). Include a picture of the character, the character's likes and dislikes and something he/she might write about him or herself	Go to the public library, get your own library card, check out a book -- and read it! (And return the book when you're finished!)	Read a fiction or nonfiction book. Create an advertisement (using the size of regular paper) about your book. Use color and try to convince people to read the book through your ad!
Read a historical fiction book. Draw a picture illustrating your setting (which is both time and place.) For book ideas go to: bookworm4kids.com or Scholastic.com	With parents' permission, find 4 interesting pictures on the following Instagram accounts (@nasa, @sandiegozoo, @natgeo, @yellowstonenps) and write captions for each picture (3-4 sentences for each caption)	Have a book picnic with your family. Plan a day when family members go to a park or the beach and everyone brings a book to read. Be sure to bring a blanket and snacks! Then everyone shares their favorite part of the book.
Read a nonfiction book about a nocturnal animal (racoons, porcupines, fireflies, owls, bats, coyotes, etc.) at night with a flashlight in bed.	Build a fort out of blankets and furniture somewhere in your house/ apartment. Read a mystery or another fictional book inside your fort.	Read a book (that you haven't read before) that is part of a series. Write why or why not you would read another book in the series (at least 3-5 sentences.)
